M. & K. STORE NEWS

Eagerly Await Mme. de Lacour. Mme. de Lacour, the famed demonstrator for Mme. Irene Corsets, who will be with M. & K. all next week, commencing Monday, May 10, was formerly a physical culture exponent, and it was what she saw while engaged in that work that drew her into the corseting profession.

"Do you know," she writes, "it was because of just that regrettable condition existing among such a large percentage of my pupils that I gave up my physical culture work to devote my entire time to the problem of hygienic corsetry."

Unusual interest is certain to be taken in the lecture with living models to be given by Mme. de Lacour one day next week. The papers will announce the date.

M. & K. buyers now in the east will return next week with the most attractive line of summer dresses and gowns ever shown in Rock Island.

Women seeking unusual values should avail themselves tomorrow of the sale of high quality suits at $11.95 and $14.95 and coats at $13.95 and $17.95.

Tomorrow in the shoe department select lines of late spring footwear for women have been reduced to $1.45 and $1.95. See the ad on the last page of this issue.—(Adv.)

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa. — "When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache."

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS
MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) If a girl meets a boy friend in town and they ride home on the car together, should the girl let the boy pay her car fare?

(2) I have been invited to a class banquet and asked to bring my boy friend. Although I have been earning my own money for a year, he is still in school and his family is not very well off. It will probably cost 75 cents a plate. Which one of us should pay the bill?

(3) Would you blame a girl for being angry at a fellow if he came to take her to a sociable without a collar on, just a white shirt turned in at the neck?

(1) Each should pay his own fare.
(2) You should pay the bill. Arrange to pay it before the banquet if possible.
(3) I cannot blame a girl for being shocked, but it is no occasion to be angry. A kindly suggestion that the young man would probably feel better with a collar on would cause no ill-feeling and it would help him to do what is right.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have a percale dress with blue flowers in it and I got it spotted with ink. How can I remove them without taking the color out of the flowers?

QUESTION BOX.
Soak the spots in milk and salt. Rub with fingers to loosen the ink.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) We are two sisters, 16 and 18 years old. Are we too young to go with the boys? Our parents think we are and never allow us to go with them. Do you think it is all right to go without their knowing it?

(2) Do you think it is all right to go with a boy who has called you up several times, but whom you have never met?

LUCILLE AND MARIE.
(1) It would be wrong and dangerous to go with boys without your parents knowing it. If you ask permission to entertain boys at your home in the presence of your parents, I am sure they will let you do it. When they see that you are worthy of being trusted alone with boys they will give you more liberties.

(2) Certainly not. A girl cheapens herself in the boy's estimation by talking to him when they have never met.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man of 22, and have been going with a young lady of 20 for about a year. One evening last winter I was going to call on her when I had a chance to take another very attractive young lady to the theatre. That afternoon I phoned to the first young lady, telling her that I could not come that evening.
